Project date	11/15/2009 (Sun) ~ 11/20/2009 (Fri) ※itinerary details listed on another paper
Project outline	From November 15 to November 20, 2009, the former U.S. president and First Lady will join thousands of volunteers in Chiang Mai, Thailand. They will shine a light on the scourge of substandard or poverty housing. Together, they will demonstrate what can be accomplished when families, communities and nations come together to build a future where every man, woman and child has a decent place to live. At the same time, work will take place on homes at Habitat for Humanity build sites in Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos and southwestern China. Your support of the Carter Work Project and Habitat's subsequent five-year Mekong Build campaign will help lift thousands of families out of poverty through Habitat for Humanity programs throughout the region.
